Richmond Castle is a massive pile of buildings on the summit of a steep hill overlooking the town of Richmond. The Castle was founded in 1072 by Alan Rufus, who was created Earl of Richmond by William the Conqueror. Succeeding earls made various alterations in the building. the Keep (99 feet high and 11 feet thick) being erected about 1150. From the top of this keep can be obtained a magnificent view of the surrounding country.
